Rule 123. Public Access to the Judicial Records of the State of Arizona

Current Supreme Court Rule 123, page 8 (g)reads:

(g) Remote Electronic Access to Case Records. (1) A court may provide remote electronic access to case records as follows:
(A) Parties, Attorneys, and Arbitrators. Parties, attorneys, and arbitrators may be provided remote electronic access, upon registering, to case records which are not sealed in all case types in which the person is an attorney of record, arbitrator, or named party, including an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or public or private organization. An attorney of record on the staff of a public or private law firm may extend access to any other attorney or person working for or on behalf of that public or private law firm, upon the other attorney's or person's registration.
